We are pleased to offer a rare opportunity to purchase an unusual and beautifully presented, substantial modern detached house built to a high standard in 2009. This property has B&B potential but is also ideally suited as a family home. The property is situated in the township of Balemartin, with spectacular views from the large bay window on the ground floor and feature window on the first floor to the Atlantic Ocean, St Kilda and other islands. Facing to the west, and boasting stunning sunsets, this is an opportunity not to be missed.

With superb quality fittings throughout, this property is light and spacious with an abundance of good quality UPVC double glazed windows which take full advantage of the superb views. With three good sized ensuite bedrooms and a further bedroom/study this property is ideally located for use as a bed and breakfast business. The ground floor living accommodation is the epitome of open plan living with an impressively sized room featuring a large bay window which maximises the light and views beyond. A ground sourced heat pump contributes significantly to the running of the zoned under floor heating. The property also benefits from a large garage with an up and over door and under floor heating. The fenced garden ground, which is accessed over a cattle grid, has a large parking area.

Balemartin is traditionally a crofting area. Nearby is the Balranald Nature Reserve and it is just a short stroll to some beautiful white sandy beaches which are found on the west coast of North Uist.

Lochmaddy, with its ferry terminal, bank, post office and doctor's surgery is some 15 miles distant. Sollas, with its supermarket some 7 miles distant. Paible, with its filling station, shop and primary school some 5 miles distant. The Isle of Benbecula with further facilities such as the airport, with regular flights to Glasgow and Stornoway, senior school, hospital, library, college, supermarkets, restaurants and hotels is some 15 miles distant.
